

MEATH CENTRE

Learning Through Practice - Primary

I CAN's Meath Centre is pleased to offer you the opportunity to:

- Observe integrated teaching and therapy practice in a specialist primary school for learners with severe speech, language and communication needs (and associated difficulties)
- Gain an overview of the special programmes provided in the school, and how these support the needs of the pupils.
- Engage in two short presentations, followed by discussion and questions, choose from the following range of subjects:
 - What does a 'Speech, Language and Communication Need' look like in the classroom?
 - How to differentiate the curriculum and provide additional support for learning
 - Understanding and managing challenging behaviour (with limited language)
 - Assessment for learning, and empowering special needs pupils to be more effective and responsible learners
 - Social skills - interventions and impact
 - Literacy toolkits- one size does not fit all

Who should attend:

Small groups of up to 6 staff - teachers; SENCOs; TAs; etc
Applications welcome from individuals as well as groups from the same school/setting

Price:

£150 per person (£200 for two people from the same setting)

We loved the practical nature of the [visual support] workshop, the handouts and advice – there was loads we would implement not just in our unit but the whole school
