MEATH CENTRE

Speech, Language and Communication Needs – what are they and how can you help?

Following on from the success of the SLCN handbook, I CAN's Meath Centre is pleased to offer you the opportunity to have the handbook brought to life! See and use the resources and activities described in the handbook; have your questions answered.

From this course you will gain:-

- An understanding of the terminology that may be used in Speech and Language Therapy reports
- A recognition of what Speech, Language and Communication Needs are (and understand the interplay & interface of different areas of SLCN).
- An understanding of what Speech, Language and Communication Needs will look like in the classroom for SEN learners
- Skills, knowledge, practical activities and resources to support SEN/children with SLCN, and associated literacy difficulties

Who should attend:

LSAs who are supporting children with SLCN; SENCOs; teachers

Price: £150 per person

Location: I CAN Meath School
Brox Road, Ottershaw, Surrey KT16 0LF
